DSTA AND BOOZ ALLEN TO EXPLORE COLLABORATION OPPORTUNITIES FOR CYBERSECURITY AND RELATED RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

Singapore's Defence Science and Technology Agency (DSTA) and Booz Allen Hamilton have signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) on the sidelines of the Singapore Defence Technology Summit<sup>1</sup> 2023.

The two organisations intend to explore opportunities to collaborate in joint research and development relating to cybersecurity and other related technologies or services.

DSTA's Chief Executive, Mr. Mervyn Tan, said, "Cybersecurity is a key challenge to address in every industry, especially for the defence sector. DSTA recognises the importance of staying ahead in this arena, tapping on Booz Allen's expertise as an industry leader to derive innovative solutions which can be seamlessly deployed amidst a rapidly evolving digital battlespace."

Booz Allen Executive Vice President Jim Allen said, "Supporting international partners that share our nation's goals in cyberspace is critical as we continue to address threats in one, interconnected cyber battlespace. We look forward to exploring opportunities to collaborate with DSTA to rapidly build, test, and deploy innovative solutions that evolve with the adversary and create a more secure cyber ecosystem in the Indo-Pacific region."
